

Bay Area Ecosystems Climate Change Consortium

Thursday, April 24, 2014, 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM
11th Floor Conference room, California State Coastal Conservancy
1330 Broadway, Oakland, CA 94610
Call-in number: (888) 232-3870, Participant Code: 226167

AGENDA

1. Introduction of participants and their BAECCC-related projects 10:00 – 10:10
2. Review agenda 10:10 – 10:15
3. Group discussion: The next steps for Cal-Adapt 10:15 – 11:45

Abstract: Kevin Koy of UC Berkeley's Geospatial Innovations Facility (GIF) and Susan Wilhelm of the California Energy Commission will describe ongoing enhancements to Cal-Adapt (<http://www.Cal-Adapt.org>), a website developed by the State to enable a variety of users to visualize and plan for local climate risks. The launch of an Applications Programming Interface (API) will support development of custom applications where Cal-Adapt's data could be used to power a new series of tools that address the specific needs of different users. Susan and Kevin will lead discussion about how the system will work and will be looking for ideas from the BAECCC community for potential tools, features, as well as the means of implementing their development.

4. Updates 11:45 – 12:00
 - a. Bayland Ecosystem Habitat Goals Update (L. Grenier)
 - b. Advanced Quantitative Precipitation Information System (C. Morrison)

LUNCH (on your own) 12:00 – 12:30

5. Group discussion: Adaptation Plans and Projects in the Bay Area 12:30 – 1:40

Abstract: Bruce Riordan and Aleka Seville from the Joint Policy Committee (JPC) will present a quick overview of the findings from their recent analysis of climate adaptation and resilience projects, plans, structures, and needs in each of the nine Bay Area counties. They will then lead a discussion regarding five key recommendations for regional action to accelerate development of climate resilience.

6. Updates (continued)
 - a. Our Coast Our Future and the North-central California Coast and Ocean Climate-Smart Adaptation Project (K. Higgason) 1:40 – 1:50
7. Review of action items, other business 1:50 – 2:00
8. Adjourn 2:00
